Resume

The Lagoon SIXTY 5 is an elegant and fearless catamaran designed to navigate both familiar and unknown waters. It embodies precision and finesse, allowing you to merge with the boat and share adventures with those you love.

On the exterior, the SIXTY 5 stands out with its sleek hulls that unfold gracefully, sculpting its curves. Its upscale aesthetics are the result of harmony between tradition and modernity, showcasing its generous proportions.

Inside the Lagoon SIXTY 5, you enjoy a breathtaking 360-degree view of the horizon. Whether you're looking forward or backward, your eyes get lost in the ocean. The saloon is comfortable and luxurious, offering open spaces flooded with light. This atmosphere extends to the cabins, which boast a generous headroom, excellent views, and natural light. The level of finishing in the hulls reflects the luxury of the saloon, while the owner's cabin enhances the concept of direct access to the sea through the aft platform, pioneered on the renowned Lagoon 620. Of course, the owner's suite embodies luxury, comfort, and refinement, and it's my favorite spot onboard.

Simplicity is the key to a boat's beauty. It must offer generosity in its dimensions, with length, width, and horizontality suited to accommodate rigging and sails in the right proportions, thus promising the journey and adventure.

Everything is there, everything is explained without revealing the essential. The SIXTY 5 is a magnificent boat that unveils itself discreetly, in an initiatory rite.
