Resume

Sailing in Corsica aboard the Lagoon 55

Step aboard the Lagoon 55 for an unforgettable experience, combining contemporary design, ultimate comfort, and smooth performance at sea. Perfect for a private cruise with family or friends, this catamaran offers an elegant and welcoming setting to discover Corsica in a unique way.

A catamaran designed for comfort

Bright living spaces: The Lagoon 55 features a panoramic salon with large windows, offering breathtaking views over the Mediterranean. Its modern, fully equipped galley allows you to enjoy freshly prepared meals outdoors, under the spacious cockpit bimini or on the flybridge.

Elegant cabins: With 5 cabins, each with its own en-suite bathroom, the Lagoon 55 provides private, refined spaces. Thoughtful layouts and premium finishes ensure a peaceful atmosphere after a day of sailing.

Generous accommodation: In addition to the 5 double cabins, the catamaran offers extra berths with Pullman beds, comfortably welcoming up to 12 guests.
Corsica, the Mediterranean jewel

Aboard the Lagoon 55, set sail to explore the treasures of the Island of Beauty:

- The white cliffs of Bonifacio
- The crystal-clear waters of the Lavezzi Islands
- The renowned beaches of Palombaggia and Santa Giulia
- The Calanques of Piana, a UNESCO World Heritage site
- The bay of Calvi, with its unique Mediterranean charm

Every anchorage is an invitation to discovery: swimming, snorkeling, strolling along unspoiled beaches, or exploring authentic Corsican villages.

The art of living at sea

With its expansive flybridge, generous forward cockpit, and large sunbathing areas, the Lagoon 55 invites relaxation and shared moments. Thanks to its seamless design, interior and exterior spaces flow together, creating a warm and convivial atmosphere.
