CREW PROFILE

Miguel Duchêne

CAPTAIN

Miguel holds the Captain 500 and Captain 200 sailing licenses, as well as a 250 kW mechanic qualification. Calm and responsive by nature, he combines the rigor of his training with the energy of his youth.

Despite his age, he already has substantial experience as a captain, including six Atlantic crossings to his credit.

Marlène Duléry

CHEF

Marlène worked as a chef in several restaurants in France and internationally, as well as as a private chef for French, British, and American families. Independent and highly adaptable, she enjoys designing menus tailored to each client's preferences.

She is the author of a book on nutrition.

Passionate about dance, yoga, and meditation, she cultivates a balance between well-being and culinary creativity.

Malika Kerdioui

FIRST MATE

With over ten years of sailing experience, Malika has participated in several transatlantic crossings on sailboats over 50 feet.

Discreet yet always available, her helpful spirit makes her a valuable asset on board.

Florent Boissinot

HOSTESS

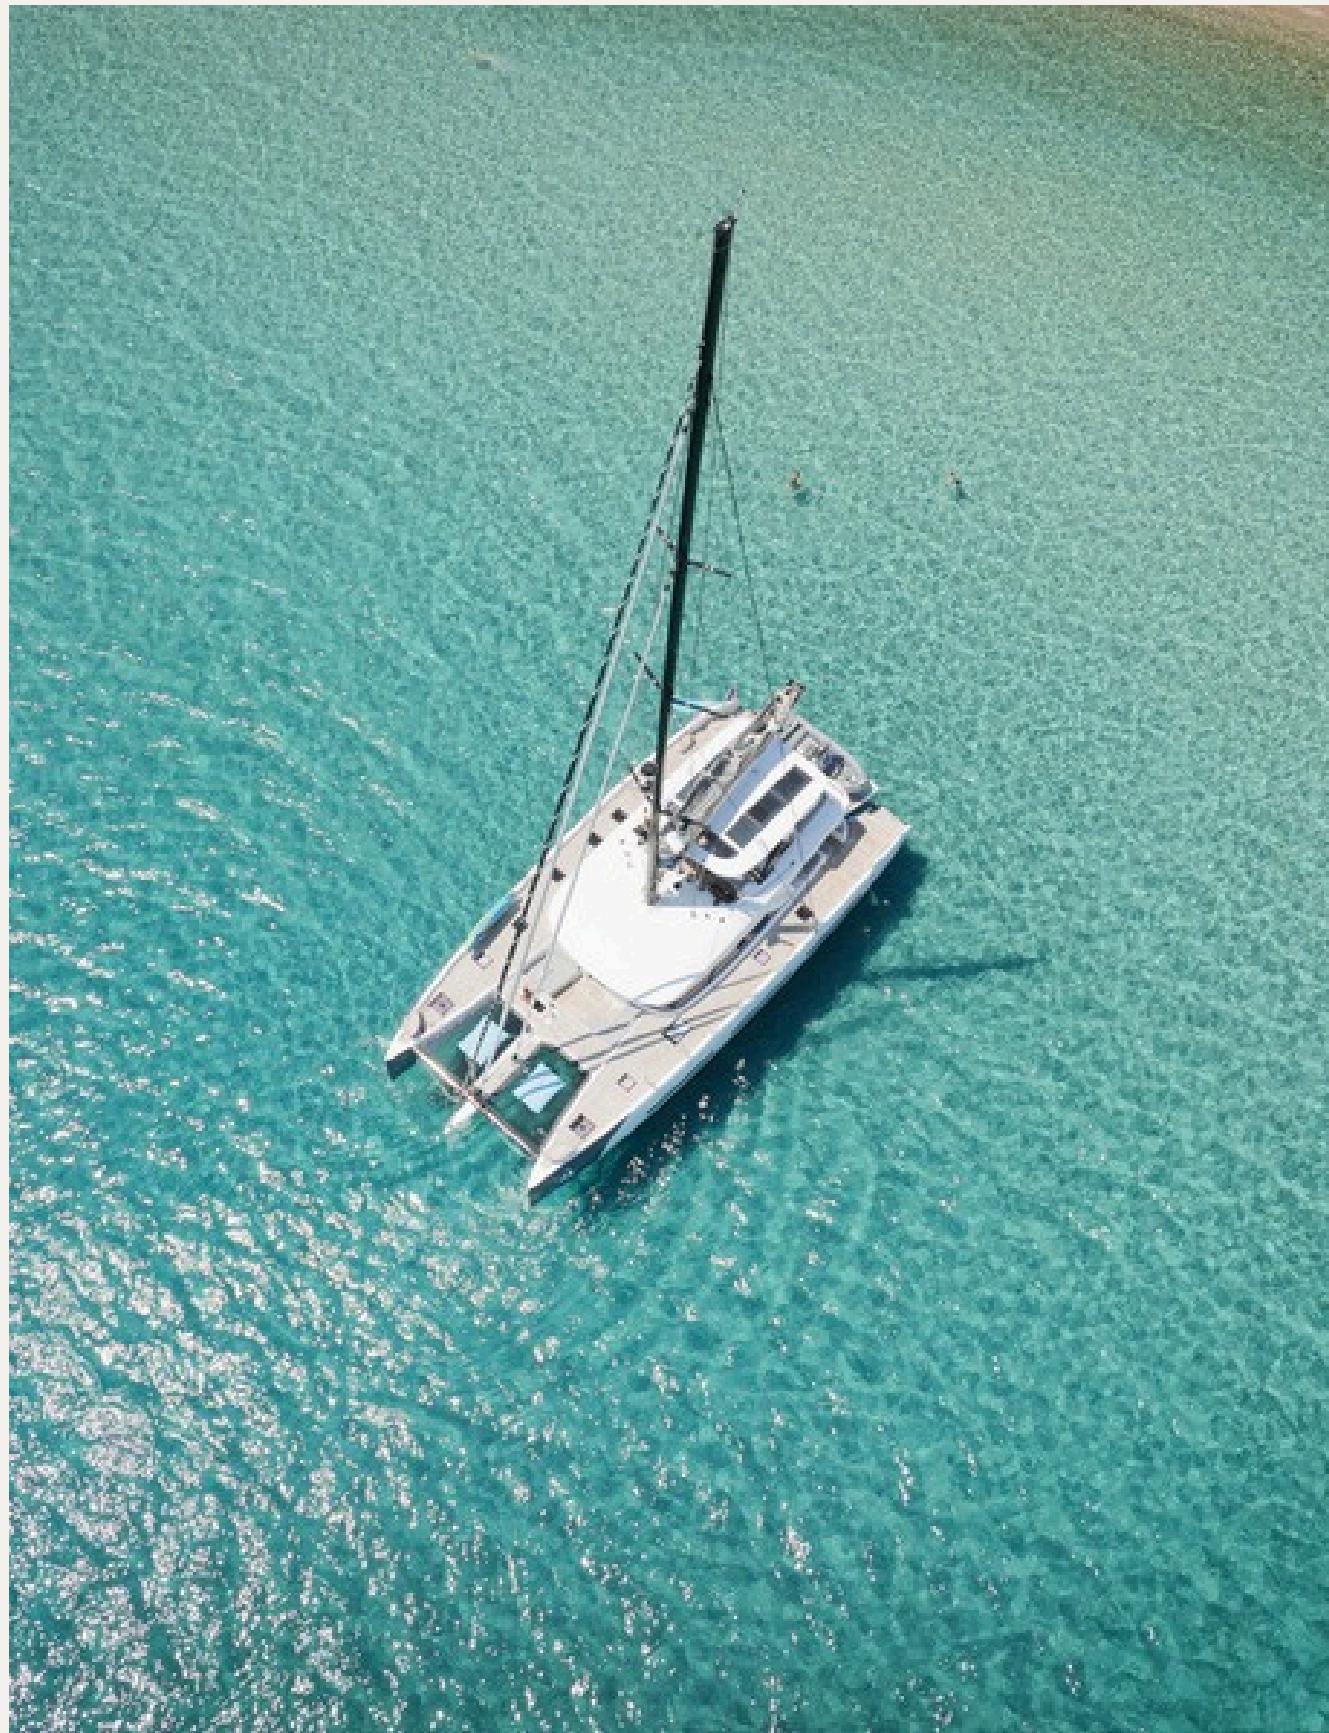

After several years at sea as well as onshore, Florent has gained comprehensive and versatile experience.

He has worked both in service and in the kitchen, and holds multiple qualifications that attest to his skills. Highly attentive to detail, Florent brings rigor and passion to everything he undertakes.

The Caribbean

Set off on a 7- or 14-day adventure to explore the jewels of the Caribbean. Each stop reveals a new island paradise—turquoise waters, white-sand beaches, refined Creole cuisine, laid-back moments, and thrilling water activities. From the Grenadines to St. Barts, let yourself be carried away by the enchanting rhythm of the tropics.

7 Day itinerary

Suggested 7-day itinerary

Day 1 -Gustavia, Saint-Barthélemy

Your voyage begins in the heart of Gustavia, Saint-Barthélemy's chic and sun-drenched capital. The yacht sails toward Maundays Bay, one of Anguilla's most iconic beaches, where powder-white sands meet the sleek design of Cap Juluca.

Highlights: Sunset cocktails on deck, a first swim in crystal-clear waters, and dinner under the stars.

Day 2 - Maundays Bay, Anguilla

A serene bay lined with white sands and aquamarine waters. Maundays Bay is a sanctuary of calm elegance, embraced by the curved architecture of Cap Juluca and the scent of frangipani in the breeze.

Moments to savor: Swimming in translucent waters, sunset aperitif on deck, dinner with refined island cuisine.

Day 3 - Road Bay, Anguilla

An anchorage rich in local character. Road Bay is Anguilla's gateway to authenticity — colorful, musical, and quietly vibrant.

Suggested experiences: Strolls along Sandy Ground beach, local rum tasting, or a peaceful evening under the stars.

Suggested 7-day itinerary

Day 4 : Scrub Island, Anguilla

Untouched and uninhabited, Scrub Island offers a return to nature in its purest form. An exclusive escape for those who seek silence, clarity, and connection with the sea.

Signature moments: Morning meditation, snorkeling in coral gardens, barefoot walks on windswept shores.

Day 5 : Grande Case - Marigot, Saint Martin

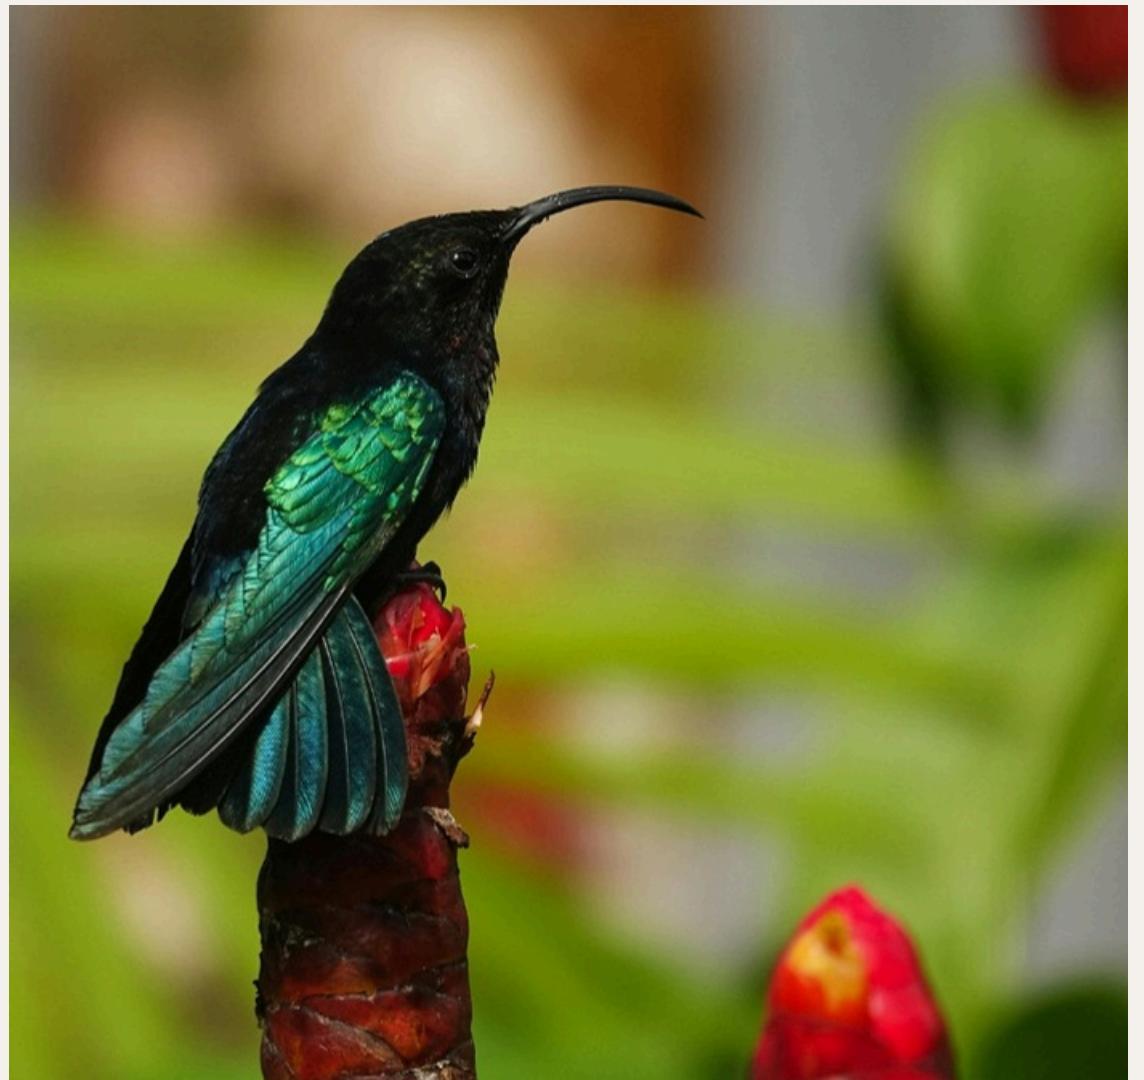

An elegant port of call on the French side of Saint Martin. Grande Case is celebrated for its fine gastronomy and relaxed, artistic atmosphere.

Unmissable experiences : Lunch at a French bistro, visit to local art galleries, or a curated dinner under soft island lanterns.

Day 6 - 7 : Gustavia, Saint-Barthélemy (Return)

As the cruise comes full circle, Gustavia welcomes you back with its timeless allure. Red rooftops, designer boutiques, and gentle trade winds signal the end of an unforgettable passage.

14-day itinerary

Suggested 14-day itinerary

Day 1 and 2 - Marigot Bay, Saint Martin (Departure)

Your journey begins in Marigot Bay, a tranquil harbor framed by gentle hills and French-Caribbean architecture. Embarkation unfolds with grace as your yacht glides away from the coastline, embraced by the warm afternoon light.

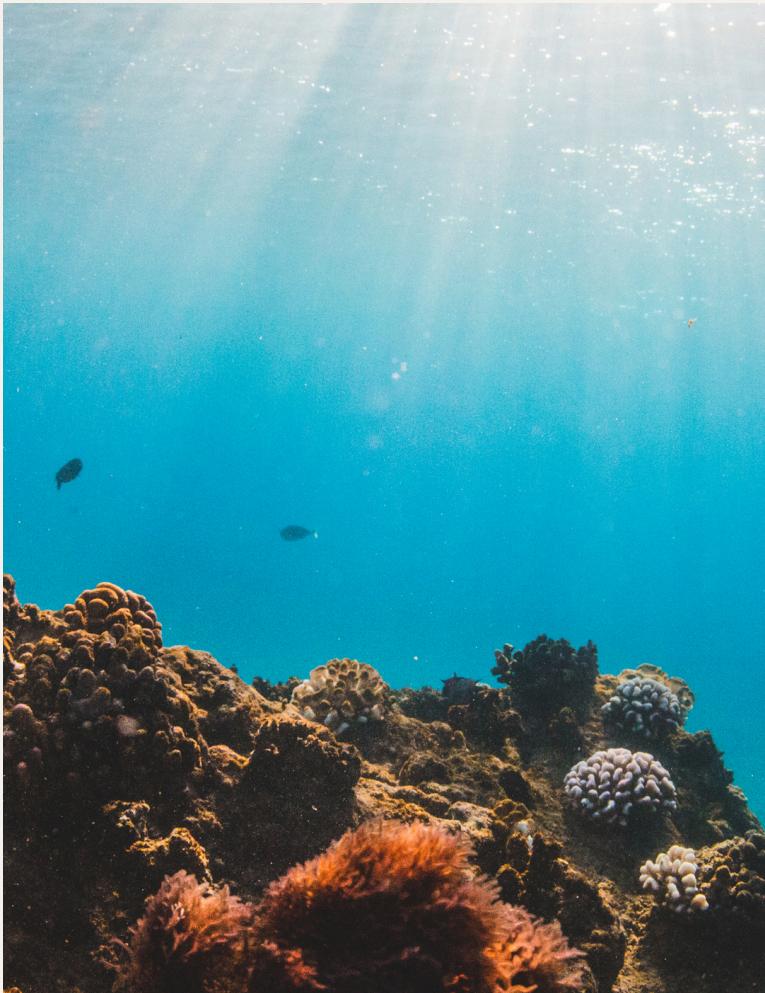

Day 3 - Maundays Bay, Anguilla

A curve of soft white sand and clear aquamarine water, Maundays Bay welcomes you with understated luxury. The bay feels private, calm, and touched by the elegance of the island's natural simplicity.

Day 4 : Scrub Island, Anguilla

Wild and uninhabited, Scrub Island invites you into raw nature. The land feels untouched, the horizon wide and silent, with only the wind and waves as companions.

Day 5 : Cocoa Bay, Barbuda

In Barbuda, the landscape softens, and the sea turns crystal-clear. Cocoa Bay is a long ribbon of pale sand, barely touched by footprints, offering total serenity beneath the Caribbean sun.

Day 6 : Lee Cove, Antigua

Hidden and peaceful, Lee Cove is a secret anchorage on the northern coast of Antigua. The cove is perfectly sheltered, the water calm and welcoming, and the surroundings lush and still.

Day 7 and 8 : Jolly Harbour, Antigua

A modern marina set against a backdrop of white-sand beaches, Jolly Harbour blends comfort and tropical ease. A graceful transition between seclusion and gentle civilization.

Suggested 14-day itinerary

Day 9 : Day at Sea

The ocean becomes your horizon. The yacht moves in rhythm with the wind, and the day unfolds in simplicity and silence. A moment to reconnect — with nature, with time, with self.

Day 10 - 11 : Gustavia, Saint-Barthélemy

Arriving in Gustavia is like returning to a familiar elegance. Red rooftops, refined shops, and soft island light create an atmosphere of quiet sophistication and timeless charm.

Day 12 - 13 : Simpson Bay, Saint Martin

In Simpson Bay, the lagoon offers a vast and protected anchorage. Life moves slowly on the water, surrounded by stillness, light, and distant hills beyond the shoreline.

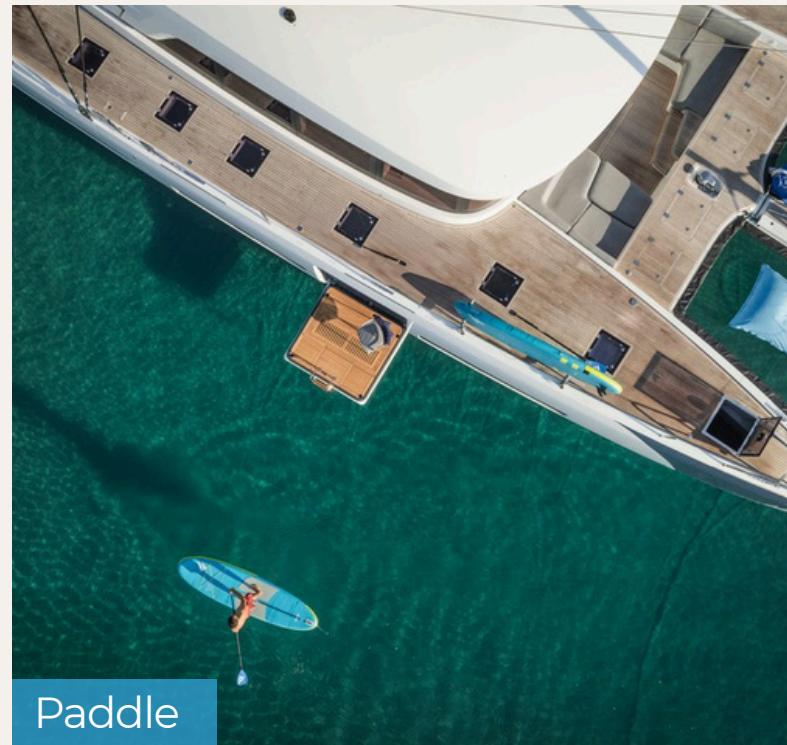

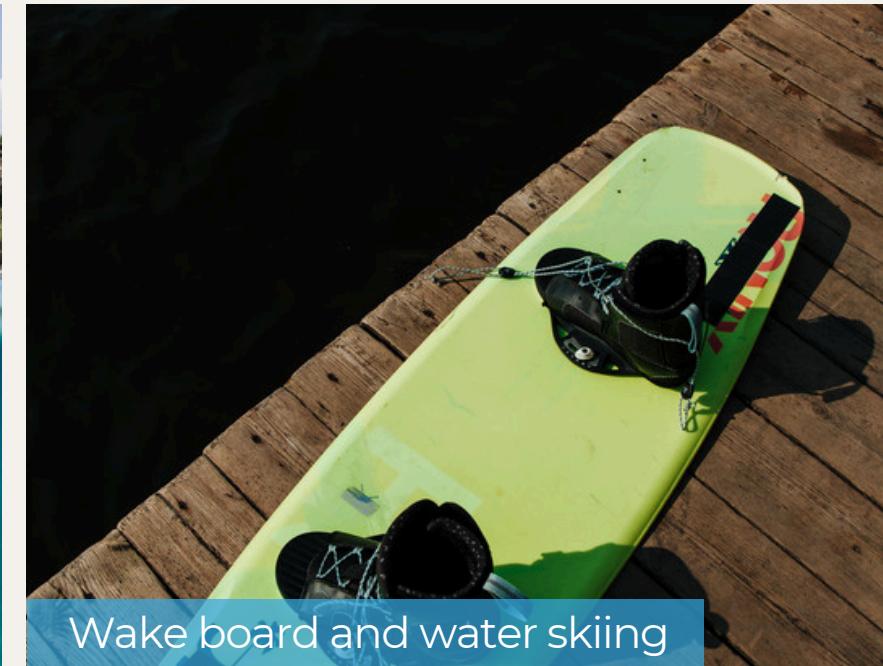

Day 14 : Santa Giulia - Bonifacio

The yacht returns to Marigot Bay, where your journey began. The island welcomes you with the same quiet elegance, as you bid farewell to the Caribbean — carrying with you its silence, its light, and its warmth.
